FROM YOUR (INTERIM) PASTOR...

It was an annual trek when I was living in the Netherlands. On the fourth Thursday of November we would trek to a church in Delfshaven, which these days is part of the city of Rotterdam. It is regularly forgotten that the Pilgrim fathers (and mothers) did not head for North America initially. Rather they left their homes in England and traveled to the Netherlands, which was renowned for its religious freedom. After a bit of time in Amsterdam, the Pilgrims moved south to the city of Leiden, where many were employed in textiles. Many resided in houses surrounding the Pieter's Kerk, where yours truly would walk when he was studying in Leiden. But wanting to maintain their language as well as their own religious practices, the group decided to head west, back to England, and then onto the New World. So they set off through a series of canals and the Schie River for Delfshaven, where they knelt in prayer on the dock near the church. Soon thereafter they boarded the Speedwell and set sail for Plymouth, England, and onto North America. When the Speedwell proved less than seaworthy the Pilgrims returned to Plymouth, boarded the Mayflower, and sailed across the North Atlantic for Virginia, a destination they obviously never reached.

It's hard not to admire the courage and resolve of these early Pilgrims. They did not believe that the Church of England satisfied their spiritual quest. To some it seemed that the Pope had simply been replaced by the English monarch. They wanted to practice their beliefs in an unadulterated fashion. So they left England, first for the Netherlands and then for the New World. It certainly wasn't easy! There were trials and tribulations seemingly at every turn. They had left their homes and culture in England for the Netherlands, only to become discouraged and frustrated yet again. So they moved on - again. But as they moved on curiously they took time to pray at the church in Delfshaven. By worldly standards they didn't have much. They certainly didn't have much to show for all their troubles. Still they knelt to pray on the quay near the church which would eventually be accorded the name Pilgrim Fathers' Church. Obviously their trials and tribulations were still far from over. But they believed that God was with them, and they continued to move on in faith. Eventually they did make it to the New World, and they were able to establish a colony in the New World.

I find it remarkable that a group which had experienced so much adversity would kneel to return thanks to God, even as they were setting out for a totally new world. There seems to be a "disconnect" between their practice and reality. Still I believe they have something to teach us. In our modern world it is only the United States and Canada among major nations who celebrate a day of Thanksgiving. And in these United States Thanksgiving is often more about parades, football, and turkey than it is about returning thanks to God. We are disoriented when we fail to be thankful. Cultivating an attitude of gratitude inspires people to continue to work for the next reason for which to give thanks to God. And if you truly cultivate that attitude of gratitude, if you are truly thankful for the blessings we enjoy, then you will find that God will be sending even more blessings your/our way.

In Christ,

Pastor Keith

When we give the Word of God space to live in our heart, the Spirit of God will use it to take root, penetrating the earthiest recesses of our lives.

GOD EMPOWERS YOU

The good news is that God does not expect us to live out our Christian walk in our own strength or ingenuity. God's Presence living inside of us empowers and equips us to live the Christian life. We read in Luke 24:49 that Jesus told his disciples, "I am going to send you what my Father has promised; but stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high." He was referring to the Spirit of truth, the Holy Spirit. If you have received Jesus Christ as your Savior you have this same power residing in you.

Again in John 14:16-17, Jesus comforts his followers with, "And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counselor to be with you forever-the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you."

Charles Stanley writes in his book, Becoming Emotionally Whole that, "the ministry of the Holy Spirit is to give you daily guidance and counsel" and "to guard you from evil and to guide you into righteousness." Dr. Stanley exhorts us to, "Ask for the help of the Holy Spirit on a daily basis." Charles Spurgeon tells us in his book, Holy Spirit Power, "You will never overcome sin by your own power nor by any energy other than that of the Holy Spirit." We need to learn to rely on God to do for us what we cannot do for ourselves.

When Zerubbabel returned to Jerusalem to rebuild the temple that was in ruins, the LORD encouraged him with the words in Zechariah 4:6, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: 'Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit,' says the LORD Almighty." "Might" meaning human resources or human ability. "Power" meaning human physical or mental effort. The same is true for us in whatever God calls us to do.

In Isaiah 40:29, we read, "He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak." I like Isaiah 40:28, "Do you not know? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom." Sometimes or rather most times we need to be reminded of how big God is and the magnitude of His infinite Person. This is found most easily in His word.

God gives us His Spirit so we can do what we could never do in the flesh. Isn't it a relief to know that God never demands of us what He has not already enabled and empowered us to accomplish.

TO GOD BE THE GLORY

Sue Carter

HAPPY THANKSGIVING
Merry Christmas

The Beverly Presbyterian Church provides two outstanding opportunities for you to gather with other Christians for worshipping and praising God. A traditional worship service with hymns of praise is held every SUNDAY AT 10:00 AM. On THURSDAY NIGHTS AT 6:00 PM in the Fellowship Hall, Tom and Joanne DiLeo lead us with praise songs and in a time of prayer and sharing. God is present at these gatherings and in every minute of your day, through the good and the bad. The Praise & Prayer service has an open forum which allows you to share those times. You will leave feeling encouraged, loved and uplifted.

THE GOOD LIFE RECIPE

- |                  |                   |
|------------------|-------------------|
| 4 c. LOVE        | 5 tsp. HOPE       |
| 2 c. LOYALTY     | 2 tsp. TENDERNESS |
| 3 c. FORGIVENESS | 4 qts. FAITH      |
| 1 c. FRIENDSHIP  | BARREL LAUGHTER   |

Take Love and loyalty, mix it thoroughly with faith. Blend it with tenderness, kindness and understanding. Sprinkle abundantly with laughter. Bake with sunshine and serve daily with generous helpings.

This recipe was printed in an old recipe book that I believe came from the Presbyterian Women many years ago. Betty Kreischer found it recently and has decided to share it with all of you. (Some things never change, I hope).

BOY SCOUT TROOP 24—ROBIN SPERRY

Highlights from Troop 24's Early Fall from Robin Sperry, Charter Representative and Advancement Chair for Troop 24 September was busy with our pretzel and drink fundraiser at the Wood Street Fair in Burlington City. It was very successful and the boys enjoyed seeing all those that stopped by our booth to support them. We also had our bi-annual Court of Honor picnic. It got rained out on the afternoon we were supposed to have it so we had it in the church fellowship hall during one of our Wednesday night meetings

October brought our planning and having our recruiting Halloween Party open house. We had 13 cub scouts plus their families attend on the 18th.

Hoping a few decide to join the troop come this spring. At the end of the October we are participating in Edgewater Park's Halloween Boo-Nanza. I think the boys are really looking forward to it! Some will serve refreshments and some will be part of the haunting group.

In November we will be doing Paul Bunyan Day - a cub scout event will cool activities. And our Feast in the woods camping trip. I will provide pics from those next time.
